A bar classic cocktails

A bar's French 75

€26

Remy Martin VSOP, sauternes syrup, lemon juice, "R" de Ruinart brut

While modern day recipes call for gin as a spirit for this cocktail, the original one calls for cognac. In our opinion a far better choice flavour wise. The syrup made of Sauternes wine enriches the cocktail with flavours of sweet grapes while the champagnes gives it a dry finish

Dutch Manhattan

€19

Millstone 100 Rye, Willems Wermoeed, cherry liquor, orange bitters

The Manhattan is one of the most well-known cocktails. Classically it's made with American Rye whisky, sweet vermouth and angostura bitters. The Dutch Manhattan is made with Dutch Zuidam Rye whisky, Willems Wermoeed, Amsterdam produced vermouth and is enhanced with cherry liquor and orange bitters.

Amstel Punch

Macallan Gold, Hierbas de las Dunas, spiced biscuit syrup, lemon, orange

The Amstel approach to a classic 5-ingredient cocktail, usually consisting of alcohol, water, tea, citrus and sugar. With roots in 18th century India, the Amstel Punch refers to the Hindi word panch, which translates to five. Taking a pinch of creative freedom and a dash of autumn inspiration, this is an instant classic.

Monthly Cocktail

€13

Sour 55

Union 55 spiced Rum, orange, vanilla, Angostura bitters, egg white

Using the spiced and salted Union 55 Rum we have created a drink which is best described as a mix between an MaiTai and a "sour". Enjoy some summery flavours during these cold winter days.

A bar signature cocktails

Overtoomse Veld

€17

Caramel sea salt infused genever, fresh raspberries, orange, yuzu, vanilla

The Overtoomse Veld looked very different in the 1950's from the way it does today. Converted to a residential area, this neighbourhood was formerly known as "the garden of Amsterdam," due to the many herbs and fruits which were cultivated here. Sweet raspberries and fresh oranges balance the salty undertones of our caramel & sea salt infused genever. The sour yuzu, a citrus fruit grown in parts of Asia, adds a surprising twist to this floral cocktail.

Czaar Peterstraat

€16

Dutch Courage gin, elderflower, lemon, egg white, celery bitters, Port wine

Situated near the oostelijke eilanden (east in the city), the Czaar peterstraat has been a ground for action since early 17th century. These shipyards played an important role in the era of the VOC, or the Dutch East India Company. Some of the key ingredients in this cocktail, such as elderflower and port wine, were influential trading commodities during this time. Ahoy!

Albert Cuyp Markt

€18

Stroopwafel infused vodka, Becherovka, cream, chocolate bitters

Named after a 17th century painter, the Albert Cuyp market is one of the top destinations in the cities. From knick-knack souvenirs to freshly prepared sticky stroopwafels, the market truly has a something to everyone's taste. Savour the sweetness in this delicious cocktail with hints of caramel and chocolate.

Damrak

€17

Rutte Koornwyn XO, Luxardo Maraschino liqueur, Willems Wermood, grapefruit, grapefruit bitters

Back in the 19th century, the Damrak was Amsterdam's prime place of trade. With its easy connection to the IJ River, ships could easily access this area. Today, it is the home of the Amsterdam Stock Exchange, and thus kept to its trading origin. The rich combination of flavours in this cocktail reminiscence the 19th century Damrak. The Koornwijn XO hints of a wood and citrus inflection from the American oak cask, whilst the Willems Wermood's rich herbal edge adds a level of complex spice to the drink.

Sarphatistraat

€18

Hendricks Gin, Willems Wermoeud, lime, lemon, Cointreau

A visionary of his time, Dr. Samuel Sarphati is the founder of the Amstel Hotel. After dedicating most of his life to the prosperity and wellbeing of the people of Amsterdam, it is only just he has both a street and a cocktail named after him. As a prominent medical professional, Dr. Sarphati may rest easy knowing this zesty & fresh cocktail is brimming with Vitamin-C!

De Dam

Wijnand Fockink Apple brandy, the Stillery vodka, lemon, apple, old fashioned bitters

The Wijnand Fockink distillery and bar in the Pijlsteeg dates back to 1679, when Amsterdam was a rich and prosperous city due to a thriving liqueur industry. Located a stone's throw from Dam Square, this traditional tasting tavern still produces a large variety of liqueurs. Their Apple Brandy is the dominant ingredient in this cocktail, giving it a sour punch. Combined with the kick of spelt vodka, the sweetness from the syrup and the refined bitters, this surely would have been Mr. Fockink's favourite recipe.

Zeedijk

€18

Millstone 100 Rye, Mandarin Napoleon, lapsang souchong, ginger syrup, whisky barrel aged bitters

The Zeedijk is the heart of Amsterdam's China Town, the place to be for quality Chinese restaurants and delis. To welcome this growing demographic, the council even installed bilingual signs, showing the street names in Dutch and Chinese. This cocktail marries the best of both worlds with Dutch rye whisky at its base, the sharp flavour of ginger and a hint of smoke from the traditional Chinese black lapsang souchong tea.

The cocktails above are A bar signature cocktails, classic cocktail are not on the menu but can be ordered.

Virgin and Low ABV cocktails

A bar Fizz light

€9,5

Lime, vanilla, mint, grapefruit, soda water

Traditionally the Fizz is a combination of alcohol, citrus and sparkling water. It is one of the oldest styles of cocktails. In the A-Bar Fizz light there is grapefruit and lime for citrus taste, vanilla to subtle this cocktail with warming tones, mint as a fresh palate cleanser and the soda to let it sparkle.

Basil Lapsang Smash

Lapsang souchong tea, lemon, basil, egg white

This is a spin on a classic cocktail; the 'Basil Smash'. As a base we've used lapsang souchong tea, this is a Chinese black tea that is originally from the mountains of Fujian. It distinguishes from other types of tea, as the leaves are smoke dried over pinewood fire, giving them a flavour of smoky pine. Together with the fresh basil and lemon juice it makes a well-balanced fresh drink with a hint of smoke.

Nogroni *

€9,5

Chai Tea, Campari syrup, sugar syrup, angostura bitters

As a twist on the 'Negroni' cocktail, the drink contains a homemade syrup of Campari and Chai tea, which is a spicy Indian herbal black tea. Some of the spices that are used for making the Chai tea are: cinnamon, ginger, pepper, cloves and cardamom. A hint of orange, spices and bitters make this a perfect aperitif!

Passion fruit Alexander*

€9,5

Espresso, fresh passionfruit, vanilla syrup, chocolate bitters

This is a perfect after dinner cocktail for the ones that have to drive home again after an amazing dinner, or for the ones who already had enough to drink. This is a twist on a classic 'Espresso Martini', only then with just 1% alcohol. We've added fresh passionfruit together with a surprising mix of espresso, vanilla and chocolate. We've finished it off with grated nutmeg.

* Contains less than 1% alcohol

Premium Spirits

Listed below are some of the world's most sought after spirits. All spirits are uniquely available in 1cl and 4cl shots.

The Macallan No.6	4cl	€250
	1cl	€70

A rich and complex single malt that takes it's natural colour and flavour from handcrafted Spanish oak first-fill sherry casks. Only six casks were selected from a single cooperage providing this whisky with a unique flavour.

The Macallan M	4cl	€420
	1cl	€110

Macallan M is the pinnacle of the 1824 series. The result of a collaboration between three masters of their crafts. Fabien Baron for designing the decanter, Lalique for producing it and of course Bob Dalgarno whisky maker for the Macallan since 1996. Aged in only first-fill sherry casks which were cared for by generations of whisky makers.

The Macallan 40 years old	4cl	€520
	1cl	€130

Back in 2006 when Bob Dalgarno married nine casks for his 30 year old expression he decided to leave the tenth cask for an extra decade of aging. Aged on European and American sherry seasoned oak casks. This is the pinnacle of The Macallan's sherry oak range.

Nolets Reserve	4cl	€125
	1cl	€35

Every year on the birthday of Carolus Nolet Senior, a limited amount of bottles of Nolets Reserve are produced. A complex gin highlighting two botanicals. Verbena & saffron. The verbena produces fresh citrus flavours and saffron balances the flavour with warm, spicy notes. We recommend drinking this spirit neat with a glass of water on the side.

Havana Club Maximo	4cl	€290
	1cl	€75

Havana Club Maximo is an extra añejo rum and is made by blending only the finest, oldest rums from the Havana Club cellars. It is created by Havana Club's Don Jose Navarro. It is said to be the best expression of Cuban rum and only 1000 bottles are made each year. Take your time to enjoy this spirit while it evolves over time in your glass.

Louis XIII de Rémy Martin	4cl	€175
	1cl	€45

Drafting it's name from the former king of France Louis the thirteenth who encouraged the selling of eau-de-vie during his reign. Louis XIII de Rémy Martin is crafted using 1200 different eaux-de-vie all of which are produced in the Grande Champagne with ages going back 150 years.

Le Voyage de Delamain	4cl	€480
	1cl	€130

In the heart of the Grande Champagne lies the house of Delamain. Established in 1759 and world renowned for it's quality and character. Le Voyage de Delamain is created by using only the oldest, rarest and most authentic eaux-de-vie from the best vineyards in the Grande Champagne.

Richard Hennessy	4cl	€225
	1cl	€60

A tribute to Richard Hennessy the founder of Maison Hennessy dating back to 1765. Blended from the most exceptional eaux-de-vie some reaching the age of almost 200 years old.

Spiritual home

The serving of whisky should be a special occasion. As the whisky has been aged for a considerable length of time it becomes a drink to be savoured whether this is in cocktails or as a drink on its own.

The Macallan recognises this effort to serve the best possible whisky and has named bars who take special effort in doing so Spiritual homes. A Bar is very proud to be named Spiritual home.

For A Bar it means that in collaboration with the Macallan there will be special serves for their rare whiskies, furthermore there will be special sessions every half year where Sietse Offringa, European brand ambassador will offer guests the opportunity to experience the story of the Macallan through a guided tasting session.

We hope that you will enjoy whisky, slàinte
